Explore Hagerstown

Begin with a stop at the Museum of Fine Arts to explore costume and scenic designs in HIGH DRAMA: Costumes from the Contemporary American Theater Company, on display June 3, 2017 - August 6, 2017. The Museum is open six days a week, offers FREE admission, and provides barrier-free access to its notable art collections, exhibitions and educational programs, events, and concerts. The Museum's impressive collection numbers some 6,500 works of art.

The HIGH DRAMA exhibition features costumes, drawings, fabric swatches, scale models, props, video, and stunning shoes to deliver an up close and personal look at the art on stage at the Contemporary American Theater Festival (CATF). CAFT is one of the top three premier new play Festivals in the country committed to telling diverse stories that discuss relevant themes of today's society. Please join us in the Groh Gallery for our FREE gallery talks with CAFT Associate Producing Director, Peggy McKowen on Wednesday, July 12, at 10:00 a.m. or Wednesday, July 19, at 10:00 a.m. Call today to reserve your spot, (301) 739-5727, or email educ.marketing@wcmfa.org.

A visit to Hagerstown would not be complete without a trip to the downtown Arts and Entertainment District. Anchored by the Maryland Theater, the A&E District is home to several arts organizations, including the Maryland Symphony Orchestra, and is dotted with special galleries including the Washington County Arts Council. Dining is exceptional and widely acclaimed in this area. Visit <http://visithagerstown.com> for more information.

The Contemporary American Theater Festival (CATF) runs July 7th - 30th, 2017 at nearby Shepherd University in Shepherdstown and is a professional theater dedicated to producing and developing new American plays. One of the top three premier play festivals in the country, CATF is committed to telling stories that are immediate, fervent and often provocative and challenging. The scenery, costumes, and visual dialogue of these plays convey these narratives with passion, creativity and boldness. Visit <http://catf.org/> for more details or see the accompanying informational sheet about group sales and rates.
