Dates of the FALL 2021 SMYP session: Saturdays, September 25th - November 13th

Class A: 10AM - 10:55 AM and Class B: 11:05 AM -12:00PM. Reception will be held November 13th. Families will be invited to view the awards ceremony and student artwork. Reception details will be given closer to the date (tentatively scheduled in person but it may be virtual).

IMPORTANT: Submitting an application for SMYP does NOT guarantee registration.

Acceptance notifications and class time will be sent to parents/guardians starting Tuesday, September 7th.

WCMFA will begin to hold youth classes in person, FALL 2021! This is tentative to change in accordance with COVID19 guidelines, but WCMFA is planning to hold each of the 8 classes in-person. Masks are required until further notice. By signing this application, you acknowledge that your child(ren) are required to wear masks over the nose and mouth while in the museum.

The free Saturday Morning Youth Program is made possible by the Mary K. Bowman Historical and Fine Arts Fund. This generous grant pays the cost of your child's participation. Because of this, perfect attendance is expected, greatly appreciated, and rewarded.

IMPORTANT PARENTAL PLEDGE AND AGREEMENT. PLEASE READ CAREFULLY.

I pledge the following:

- My child will attend all classes. If my child needs to miss class to due sickness, I will CALL the Museum at 301-739-5727 before the start of class. If my child has two unexcused absences, I understand the Washington County Museum of Fine Arts views such as a forfeit of participation and will give the open spot to a child on the waiting list at the discretion of the teacher.
- My child will maintain excellent behavior and abide by the safety and etiquette guidelines of the Museum, which can be found at <http://wcmfa.org/visit/policies/>.
- I will drop my child off promptly at arrival and dismissal.
- I, or whomever I designated, will sign my child in AND out of class.

To the Washington County Museum of Fine Arts, A non-profit institute whose address is 401 Museum Drive, Hagerstown, Maryland 21740. Parent acknowledges that (I) they have enrolled their child(ren) in classes, workshops, programs and/or events to be offered by and/or at the Museum, (II) they are willing to waive and to release the Museum and its agents from all claims, demands, causes of action, liabilities, losses, damages and costs that may arise from any and all injuries and damages sustained by the child(ren) while attending the classes, workshops, programs and/or events.

Therefore, in consideration of the instruction to be provided by the Museum to the Student and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Student, for themselves, their parent(s) or legal guardian(s) hereby AGREES that the Museum and its agents and employees shall have no liability whatsoever to the Student for any injury or damage to the Student or to any property of the Student sustained by the Student while attending the classes, workshops, programs and/or events, and hereby RELEASES the Museum and its agents and employees from any and all claims, demands, causes of action, liabilities, losses, damages and costs that may arise from any and all injuries and damages sustained by them while attending the course whether at the Museum or an on-site location.

I, the undersigned, hereby AGREE to the RELEASE of any and all photographs taken during the classes, workshops, programs and/or events, filming, and/or videotaping for Washington County Museum of Fine Arts publicity purposes, i.e., public service announcements, advertising, printed materials and other uses, and understand that the Washington County Museum of Fine Arts, a nonprofit organization, will use these photographs, films, and/or videotape to promote the Museum, its exhibitions and programs.
